Undergraduates General Education Goals

1. Students/graduates will have basic literacy skills.
2. Students/graduates will have a framework for critical analysis.
3. Students/graduates will have an appreciation for the role of natural and social sciences and humanities in today’s world.
4. Students will have an opportunity to develop their own set of values.
5. Students/graduates will have insight into patterns of human and cultural behavior.
6. Students/graduates report a broadened awareness of diversity, think from a broader world view and report increased understanding of their own and other culture.
7. Students/graduate will have exposure to creative expression.