

I am Jenni King director of Radiology at Stewart Memorial community Hospital in Lake City, IA. We are a critical access 24 bed hospital in rural Iowa that also has 4 clinics that our radiology department services as well as providing care for our patients who are referred from specialists in the city. We are currently looking to hire a staff sonographer, we have 2 part time contracted sonographers and are looking to add on a full time one. This is a new position and so we are flexible with schedules, hours, and days per week. Our current contracted sonographers are willing to train in vascular or any area that needs certified and work alongside a new grad as our current work load shows we have the need to bring on a full time tech. Below is our job posting, please let me know if there is any interest in a site visit or more information. There is potential for tuition reimbursement.
