

Allen College Preceptor of the Year Award – Nomination Information

Allen College is excited to announce the Preceptor of the Year Award to recognize and celebrate the outstanding contributions of preceptors (MD, DO, PA, ARNP) who mentor and support advanced practice nursing students. This award aims to honor preceptors who demonstrate exceptional dedication to education, leadership, and the professional growth of their students.

Who is eligible to be nominated? Any preceptor who has made a significant impact on the education and development of Allen College advanced practice nursing students, including MDs, DOs, PAs and ARNPs, are eligible for the award. A great preceptor goes above and beyond to:

- Provide guidance, support and constructive feedback
- Create a positive and collaborative learning environment
- Foster professional growth and critical thinking
- Demonstrate strong communication and leadership skills
- Serve as a role model for professionalism and clinical excellence

How to nominate a preceptor?

1. Complete a Nomination Form: Complete the Preceptor of the Year Nomination Form, available on the Allen College website.
2. Provide Supporting Documentation: Include a brief letter or narrative (500 words or less) detailing why this preceptor is deserving of the award. Share specific examples of how the preceptor has demonstrated the qualities outlined above.
3. Submit Your Nomination: Email the completed nomination form and supporting documentation to Jennifer.Jass@allencollege.edu by the deadline of December 1, 2025.

Deadline for Nominations: December 1, 2025

Selection Process: Nominations will be reviewed by a selection committee composed of faculty members, administrators, and student representatives. The recipient will be announced annually in January and will receive a commemorative award.

Help us honor those who are making a difference in the lives of our future healthcare professionals! We look forward to your nominations.
