

HELP WANTED: Personal Care Attendant

When: Summer 2026

Where: His home near the UNI campus

Who: Logan Manderfield, a 22 year-old male who will graduate from UNI in the spring. Logan has Duchenne muscular dystrophy and uses a power wheelchair full-time.

What: Assist with personal cares, including showering, toileting, transferring and other miscellaneous cares. If interested, this could be a long-term position. Wage is $14.80 per hour.

Care attendants are needed 4x per day—in the morning, afternoon, evening and bed-time for about an hour each time. Hours can be flexible and staff sign up for hours they want to work! Must be reliable and be willing to submit to a background check.

Please contact Lyndsey at 319-239-3169 or lyndseymanderfield@gmail.com for more information.