Bob Sieglaff, a lifelong Cedar Valley resident, established this scholarship in appreciation of the hard-working professionals in the healthcare field. After the passing of his wife and his parents, Bob realized the special service healthcare professionals provide and the continuing need for more of them in the area.

“It was something I felt I needed to do,” commented Bob. “People in healthcare give far more than they are ever compensated for. They are truly the most wonderful people.”

Bob’s father passed during the Depression, forcing him to take over the family farm. Bob always dreamed of going to college but wasn’t able to because of financial constraints. He hopes through his scholarship someone can fulfill his or her dreams of pursuing higher education.

Bob feels that Allen College is an important establishment for the Cedar Valley. “Allen College provides those who want to pursue healthcare, an education, and those who need healthcare, well-educated professionals,” said Bob.
