Allen College
Doctor of Education Program

Technology Requirements

All students are required to have a computer with:
- Web camera, microphone, and speakers
  - Headphones for listening to lectures – optional
- Latest version of Microsoft Office365 (Provided free of charge by the college)
- Optional for residency sessions:
  - Laptop with internal battery that can last a full day or personal external battery to power device(s).
    - The Allen College library has a limited amount of external batteries available for checkout.
    - A limited number of outlets are available during on-site residency sessions.