

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT)

The DPT program begins each year in the spring semester. All required application materials must be received prior to admission consideration. Complete applicant files are reviewed on a rolling basis. The review process requires six to eight weeks.

To be considered for admission the following criterion must be met:

- Bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited institution prior to matriculation
- Minimum 3.0 prerequisite grade point average (GPA)
 - Grade of C must be earned in all prerequisite coursework
 - Advanced Placement or CLEP credit will not be accepted
 - Recommend all prerequisite coursework taken within ten years
 - Prerequisite courses may be taken a maximum of two times
 - Recommend no more than three prerequisites in progress at time of application
- In addition to the prerequisite GPA, one of the following three must be met:
 - 3.0 undergraduate cumulative GPA
 - 3.25 undergraduate cumulative GPA in the last 60 credit hours earned
 - 3.0 graduate cumulative GPA in the last 24 credit hours earned
- Satisfactory completion of prerequisite coursework before matriculation
- GRE (Graduate Record Examination) scores using code 2960
- Applicants whose first language is not English must prove English proficiency. The TOEFL exam is also required. Minimum scores are 550 on the written, 213 on the computer-based examination, or 79 on the internet-based examinations

Meeting admission criteria does not guarantee admission. The Physical Therapy Admissions Committee uses selection criteria to choose candidates best qualified for the program and practice of the profession
